ROBERT ANDERSON

7/23/64

Dear Bob,

I guess I'll write in your Wabiscan now or at least try to. I don't really know what to write except I wish you the Best of Luck in the future and may you have God's Richest Blessing.

Remember all the meals I fixed for you and waiting up for you? I hope you enjoyed all the dinners and suppers that I fixed. even if you didn't <sup>(HA!)</sup> <sup>(HA!)</sup> enjoy it. I don't get to do much of that I did over here at home. I do most of it but not all the time like I did here. I also enjoyed staying up at night waiting for you as at home I don't do that but I go up stairs early and stay up late. Oh! Thanks for everything you did for me while I stayed here.

Well, I guess I'll sign off now.

A Friend
Yvex
Blodgett.

P.S.

Thanks for everything
this isn't a letter.

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

Each year brings its own memorable events, and 1963-1964 is special for each cherished moment. We had fun, learned well the lessons taught, and reaped the rewards of achievement. School spirit caught us as our Jacks fought hard and achieved victory. The teams made every booster proud. The band, orchestra and choir performed with enjoyable precision and sounds. Casts of the senior class and spring plays brought memorable moments. The Student Council continued to introduce new ideas and programs, yet found time to repeat the old and traditional. Members diligently worked to plan the acceptance ceremonies for the National Bellamy Award. Dances spotlighted party dresses, foot-sore young men and fragrant corsages. This year Wausau High's largest student body walked through her halls and into her classrooms. Traffic patterns and assemblies by television visibly indicated the great number that were here. Students and teachers will remember each homeroom, each assembly, each prom — because each is a memory of Wausau High. Yet, the year will always have a tragic meaning in our thoughts as we recall November 22, 1963 — the day President John F. Kennedy was assassinated. There will be joy and sorrow in the moments we spend recalling the events of this year . . . moments that ask REMEMBER WHEN?

Tempting fall days drew students onto the campus.

With Fall We Returned

REMEMBER WHEN Senior High opened to its largest enrollment September 3? We found ourselves adjusting to classes, homework, and traffic patterns. "Up only" and "down only" stairs perplexed many of us, but the routine soon became familiar, and we lost our amazement at the speed with which summer had flown by. New friendships were welcomed and the old were renewed. Schedules and classes became the main conversational pieces among students. Special attention was given our foreign guests, Gay Anderson from England, Vicky Cadiz from Columbia, and Gunner Erkan from Turkey, who enriched our student body.

The warm fall weather and colorful leaves were highlighted by our many activities. Having won the 1964 Bellamy Award, our school sent the Student Council officers and several advisors to Chattanooga, Tennessee to learn about the acceptance ceremony. Seniors spent many hours in thought and practice on the Senior Class Play. The excellent performance of "Take Her, She's Mine" was well enjoyed. We looked forward to weekend football games with great anticipation. We were very proud of our Jacks, who achieved not only the Big Rivers Conference title but the state championship.

The old and newest units of WHS awaited the onrush of students as school reopened in September.

Settling down to school work, we opened texts and tried to ignore the inviting weather.

Even seniors had trouble reading the one-way signs!

The hallways seem to get smaller every year.

Activities Were Many

Come on now . . . "Yell, Jacks, yell!"

And the band plays on . . .

Class elections brought us together to select capable leaders to guide and inspire us.

There are times when football really gets you down.

Our band entertained at football games with a college-sound and precision. Wausau Week abounded with school spirit and Queen campaigning. Ann Schlitz reigned as our lovely Queen at the victorious homecoming game and victory dance. Prevailing winds left the fall whirling in memories and brought in winter.

Ann Schlitz waves to the crowds during homecoming.

The State Football Champs receive their award.

Paul can only say "Take Her, She's Mine."

With Winter, A New Year

REMEMBER WHEN winter burst upon us, and we prepared for the long stretch ahead? The shock of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy impressed us with the need to ask "What we can do for our country."

Junior girls worked feverishly on last minute details for their Holiday Dance as Christmas vacation approached. The refreshing break ended as a new year began, and we returned to school with its many activities. January brought a flurry of activity in the band room as Tophatters put polishing touches on their performance. Empty spots were hard to find with last minute cramming for semester finals. College Boards brought delight or disappointment to seniors. "Wow, a 600 in Math" or "How did I get 500 in English" showed most were delighted.

The winter season was mild but unforgettable. The state debate trophy returned with our first place team from the Madison contest.

We joined in tribute to the late President Kennedy.

Hours of studying helped students improve their grades.

The library provided quiet moments for study.

Busy hands set spirits high for the Holiday Dance.

Moments at lockers often ended humorously.

"Hail to thee, Wausau High . . . ."

The rhythm section is the nucleus of Tophatters.

Life Was Involved

Love to have you up for a Medicare discussion!

What kind of support is that?

Students utilized voting machines for Student Council elections.

Auditorium assemblies meant TV for some sophomores.

Opponents guard Kuehl as he tries for a layup.

Student Council elections emphasized again the opportunities of democracy, and voting machines gave us experience in the new method. Basketball games and the hops were the new weekend activities. Lunch hour bridge games and assembly programs also gave us relief from classes and tests, and helped us await spring.

The track squad began practice early in the season.

Music provided valuable experience in self-expression.

With Spring, Graduation

REMEMBER WHEN spring arrived, and thoughts of homework were forgotten as a plague of spring fever infected scores of students? Many activities were drawing to a close. However, student life was still involved in hootenannies, spring sports, forensics, music festivals, the spring play and fashion show. With the approach of May thoughts turned towards the Junior Prom as starry-eyed girls worried dollar-wise boys.

As graduation approached seniors nostalgically recalled high school life. The friendships developed stood out among the cherished dried corsages, saved dance decorations, and notes. We had worked hard at adjusting, learning, meeting standards and expectations.

This year graduation was a new experience for students and faculty. The class of 1964 held its program on three different days, with Baccalaureate, an awards night, and graduation. Feeling mingled confidence and uncertainty, seniors accepted responsibility in the form of a scroll of paper. Smiling, shaking hands, and shedding a few tears they exchanged one way of life for another.

With WAHISCAN parties we realized that summer vacation was almost upon us. Soon lockers and halls would once again be empty.

Our gym echoed with enthusiastic hootenanny "sing-alongs."

Enjoying spring weather, students spent noon hours outdoors.

Wherever students gathered there were WAHISCANs to sign.

Satisfied and proud we looked towards the future.

ACADEMICS . . .

Improving methods of study, increasing knowledge, and providing practical skills for later life were characteristic of the academic program at Senior High. Sometimes our study methods were lacking, and we were tired and red-eyed when we appeared for class in the morning. But those methods improved as each department contributed to develop mind and body. Math students were offered concepts in college mathematics, science classes continued to present the laws of nature, while business education students worked to become the leaders of tomorrow. Art and music encouraged especially talented students; home economics and industrial arts taught practical skills. English classes gave us the basics of grammar and developed writing skills; foreign languages showed the reality of a closely-knit world. Faculty members led us in exploring fields of learning and tried to develop our maximum potential. Over half of them held advanced degrees, and by attending summer workshops and conferences brought new ideas and techniques to the classroom. Headed by Mr. Taylor, the administrative and teaching staffs devoted many hours to their profession; then joined students in innumerable extra-curricular activities. Every day saw activities under a teacher's guiding hand. Those were the hours we spent in learning . . . REMEMBER WHEN?

Counselors Help Students Make Many Decisions

Counseling is the heart of our guidance program. It helps us to help ourselves, make choices about classes, vocations, colleges, advanced training, clubs, and activities. It enables us to talk to someone who will hear us, to set goals and plan steps to reach them, and to work out our individual problems. Counseling shows us our capabilities as well as our limitations and guides us in our search for harmony among human relationships.

Board Keeps Watchful Eye on Our Schools

The Board of Education decides many issues pertaining to the building and maintenance of the schools and the education of the students. Each of the nine members works tirelessly without pay in the best interests of every student at Wausau Senior High. The most important task set before the board is adjusting the budget and distributing the funds in the best possible way.

The experience and foresight of G.W. Bannerman, Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Braun, President, and our board have been invaluable.

Department secretaries, assisting in clerical work, allow teachers more time for lesson preparation and classroom guidance.

Frontiers of Progress Conquered By Science

Have you spent a good deal of time studying the human skeletal system, broken many test tubes during experiments, struggled hours over seemingly insurmountable physics problems? If so, you are probably one of many students connected with W.H.S.'s science program.

Science is not only the mainstay of our existence but also the basis for our future. Applicable to any field, the "scientific method" enables us to find a logical approach to all our problems.

Science today represents the efforts of man through all the ages to enrich his fellow-man with new inventions and devices that will make his life fuller and more pleasant. The scientist today has finally earned the just respect of the peoples of every land and in years to come will continue to improve upon his inventions through limitless areas of endeavor.

As there are more modern advancements in science and technology, so must high school science courses be expanded proportionately. To accomplish this, the subject matter of the various courses is broadened and intensified, and the classroom libraries increased and supplemented. Accelerated programs are likewise continued to challenge eager students.

Many new ideas such as the present biology program are being fully initiated into our school. Likewise, many of the old stand-bys are now being studied and applied in the light of new methods and new ideas.

Mathematics Develops Process of Reasoning

In this fast moving world, mathematics changes constantly. New concepts replace the old as man proceeds on his never ending search for knowledge. Yet, despite this ever changing process, the knowledge of fundamentals and the ability to analyze remains a requirement for success in this area.

Our math department covers many aspects of this subject to prepare students for further study or to give them needed knowledge for their daily lives. Algebra, geometry, advanced algebra, trigonometry, and analysis are offered at W.H.S. In addition, foundations was added to our curriculum this year. This course covers logic, probability, linear programming, and the theory of games.

Business Skills Mean More Job Opportunities

Much drill is necessary for typing students to become quick and efficient typists.

Business is the backbone of our capitalistic civilization and an integral part of the American community. The majority of employed individuals in our country are involved in some form of commercial enterprise; therefore it is the responsibility of our educators to provide its young citizens with an adequate business education.

Through its program, a combination of both theoretical and practical knowledge, our business department seeks to train individuals to take their place in the ranks of the business world. The staff strives not only to help students perfect necessary skills, but also to develop good character and personality traits.

Literature Adds To Our Cultural Growth

Effective communication of ideas as well as knowledge is extremely important, and language is our best means of communication. If others are to have the benefit of our great store of knowledge, we must be able to pass it on to them.

The years spent in English class mold to a great degree students' ability to think and write effectively. An extensive vocabulary and grammatical correctness are the marks of a truly educated person.

Literature adds to our cultural growth; grammar develops our mental alertness, and speech trains us to express our ideas more clearly.

English can be applied to almost anything we encounter in our lifetimes. Using English in business, interpreting written problems, or merely composing single notes of communication are essential to us in making ourselves useful citizens of society. Correct usage of English remains a necessity in every phase of life.

Success, too, hinges on the way we relate our ideas in achieving standards for improvement and in accomplishing our goals. Mastering our own English language is important in our becoming educated citizens.

Thus, we see English plays a vital role in the plot of intellectual development.

Students Extend Knowledge of Foreign Tongues

The knowledge of a foreign language is becoming more essential than ever in our modern society. Clear circuits of communication in business and social transactions depend on the ability of the people of the world to understand each other.

As a result, the study of more than one language is becoming a necessity; French, Latin, German, and Spanish are offered at WHS. The relatively new language laboratory has been added to supplement and facilitate the program. The twenty-six booth lab enables students to improve their pronunciation and comprehension of a language with the aid of recordings without disturbing class progress.

Fine Arts Help Develop Individual Abilities

Fine arts provide a means through which students can express themselves. Man does not live by bread alone but also by that which can inspire and satisfy his imagination and emotion.

We recognize our fine arts department in many ways. Whether it be the chorus singing an anthem, the orchestra playing a lofty passage from a symphony, or an art class painting hidden messages in modern pieces, the arts afford us much joy and delight.

Students participating in the fine arts program enjoy an outlet of relaxation and learning which can be found in no other classroom situation.

Problems - Local and Global, Past and Present

If social studies help students to make wise and intelligent adjustments to their environment, and especially if they assist in preparing young people for responsible American citizenship, then they stand high on the list of educational priorities.

In ancient Rome and in Washington, D.C., each the "capital of the world" in its own era, significant events have occurred which have shaped the history of man.

Thus, to successfully plan for the future, it is necessary to become acquainted with the history-making news of the past and present. As tomorrow's citizens, today's history students are constantly exploring the facts of yesteryear to help them anticipate the problems of the future.

While studying history, the student achieves a sense of brotherhood with his ancestors who lived centuries ago.

World history traces the progress of man from his primitive stages to his modern day triumph. Understanding the high points of past international affairs is a main concern.

United States history helps us to develop a genuine appreciation of our heritage of freedom and to acquire an understanding of conflicts, compromises, and major decisions which have shaped this country's history.

In American Problems students study different facets of our economic system and learn of the many problems today's Americans must face.

Manual Skills Produce Superb Craftsmanship

A wide variety of opportunity is provided for any student interested in developing industrial skills. Study of electricity, woodworking, plastics, printing, auto mechanics, drafting, metalwork, and engineering technology are offered.

The many useful articles which industrial arts students make represent not only the product of labor, but also bring a feeling of great personal accomplishment — accomplishments of manual dexterity, clear thought, and careful planning.

The many hours of hard work prepare students for careers in the rapidly specializing world of today. Information learned in shop studies also comes to the rescue of many do-it-yourself projects, making them more enjoyable, and often profitable.

Students make much use of the many and varied machines in the metal shop. Pat Sippl is shaping a flat surface while Dick Gaulke turns the lathe.

In the convenience of a modern kitchen, Darla Drehmel prepares a dish for fellow home economists; Marilyn Dietzler, Carol Wilde, and Betty Dumdey help with the preparations.

Many Facilities Prepare Students For Future

DRIVER'S EDUCATION — Learn to drive in a classroom? Yes, it is being done. Alert students in our "world on wheels" must acquire and apply the rules and regulations of safe driving. The convenience and pleasure of driving must not be curtailed as a result of carelessness.

Behind the wheel experience culminates Jane Slayton's driver's training.

HOME ECONOMICS — Tantalizing aromas penetrate the room; newly-made garments drape on hangers; attractively decorated miniature rooms wait to be incorporated into full scale production. These are some of the things the home economics students produce.

Despite the changing relationship of the woman to her outside responsibilities, many girls are still determined to make a success of their home.

Home Economics instructs students in how to manage a household, cultivates in them the art of creating a happy, healthy home, and shows them how to cope with problems in the world outside their home.

LIBRARY — Books are the traditional tools of scholars. Reading a book is opening a door to a new world. Through books one can visit distant places, formulate ideas, and learn to evaluate problems.

With the ever-increasing demand for knowledge, the library plays an important part in the life of a well educated person by helping him to gain a better understanding of his school, his country, and himself.

With a library containing nearly 11,000 volumes of library and reference books, we are very fortunate to have such a storehouse of knowledge at our disposal.

CLASSES . . .

Laughter, jokes shared between classes, the race against the tardy bell, moans about tests, chats, and characterizations of well-known teachers joined the classes in fellowship. Friendships were formed which lasted through noisy football games, heated discussions, and homework bouts. The student body was diverse, with over 2,000 students and three foreign students comprising it. Incoming sophomores no longer found themselves "On the Shelf." Televised assemblies were theirs alone. The sale of bookcovers and folders brought in class funds. Juniors returned as the largest class and began their second year of studies and activities. Junior committees spent many hours in preparation for the two social events of the year, the Holiday Dance and Junior Prom. Seniors entered their most important year, preparing for the climax . . . graduation. Class pictures and college forms were topics of conversation throughout the year. Graduation announcements and caps and gowns dominated spring thoughts. Each class claimed a motto: "The Cream of the Crop," "The Biggest and the Best," and "Small in Number, Limitless in Quality." Each contained the best. These were the classes . . . REMEMBER WHEN?

The Class of '64 has concluded a very memorable stay at WHS. It has shared for three years the best in educational facilities, the utmost in extra-curricular and intramural activities, and has participated with the finest athletic and debate teams in the state.

The '64 Bellamy Award, given to WHS for being the outstanding high school in the state, can be pointed to with special pride along with the class play, "Take Her, She's Mine," the Holiday Dance, "Mistletoe Magic," and the Junior Prom, "Somewhere."

The days go so quickly once the senior year arrives, and it seems to slip by before we are aware of it. But at least we have our memories—memories that will always be a part of the Class of 1964.

SOPHOMORES have traditionally been blessed with a section of the auditorium commonly known as the "shelf." Sitting on the edges of their chairs, many sophomores have strained their eyes and ears in hopes of catching a word or two from the speaker who seems miles and miles away. The fall of 1961 introduced an outstanding group of "shelfers" and a chain of memorable events. The incoming sophomores were greeted by Marsh Taylor, the new principal, a brand-new gym, and they also had the dubious privilege of being the first to eat in the new cafeteria. The quick and easy voting machines became another new sight in Wausau Senior High. The machines have been used ever since in all school elections. They have eliminated much of the trouble of counting and sorting votes. Fads are always popping up and that semester offered no change. Yoyos were seen in every free hand and those not "yoyoing" were twisting. Some students will never forget the assembly held on hypnotism. This was something new and thought-provoking which left many students entranced. Wausau Week was highlighted by a new addition called Hex Day. This could have been one of the factors which helped lead the team on to victory.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S physical fitness program introduced a new trend for many American "softies". People all over the United States were seen trekking that long fifty mile hike although some settled for a mere twenty. Four Wausau Senior High boys thoroughly established themselves in this field. John Glenn's name was seen throughout our country's papers for being the first American to go into orbit. Seattle, Washington, hosted the World's Fair in this year. Mr. Roeske retired from his post of Vice Principal for Wausau Senior High School, and Mr. Reynolds took over the responsibility. Mr. Torresani, better known by the players as Torre, became the new basketball coach. Many sophomores will never forget those long and bothersome vocational papers which all English teachers managed to require. Humor seemed to be the password for this year as was proven in both of Miss Stelmahoske's plays, ARSENIC AND OLD LACE and TAMING OF THE SHREW. Tom Tinkham won the state oratorical contest and the year was climaxed with TROPICANA as the Junior Prom theme.

IN THE FALL of 1962 Wausau High was overrun by high school students from all over the state as it hosted the 28th annual State Student Council Convention. The wonders of automation became well known at Wausau Senior High as IBM grading came into existence. With it came threats of attacking teachers' files with paper punches. Computer programming was initiated this semester and ended many of the wild course combinations students managed to think up. A language lab was installed during the summer along with a new method of language teaching and at a quick glance one would be led to wonder why room 202 hadn't gone into orbit yet, along with everything else. During the summer, the new YMCA was opened and kids from all over town flocked into the Red Rail to while away those lazy summer days. The football team tied La Crosse for first place in the conference. Senior High students experienced their first sock hop in the new gym and found standing up to be quite a feat. Folk-singing, gum wrapper chains, knitting, and short skirts with knee socks were the fads.

Seniors Capture Various Awards

The Daughters of the American Revolution Award is given to a senior girl possessing the qualities of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. A 500-word essay on an assigned topic is also required. Winners of the local contest compete state-wide for a $100 bond and the state winners are eligible to compete nationally.

The Elks Most Valuable Student Award is given to one senior boy and girl. The judging is based on scholarship, extra-curricular and outside activities, personality, leadership, and financial need. The two winners receive a $150 bond and compete state-wide and nationally.

The Elks Leadership Award is a $150 bond given to a senior boy and girl. Besides leadership, citizen appreciation, perseverance, and resourcefulness. Local winners may compete on state and national levels.

Those eligible for the National Merit Scholarship Award must be in the upper one percent of those taking the College Board Tests, and if their grade is high enough here, they are national finalists or winners. Finalists this year included Stu Schaller, Cathy Clark, Tom Leffler, Barb Hayes and Wallace Henkelman. Besides this year's winners, letters of commendation were given to Dale Geiger, Jeff Johnson, John Lepinski, Rosemary Weyeneth, Elaine Bischoff, Lee Buechler, Emory Laffin, Thomas Passow, and Nancy Poppe.

Chosen from a field of 30 nominated top English students, these four finalists were asked to write a theme on courage and an autobiography of a limited length. The four finalists for the National Council of English Teachers compete statewide, and state winners automatically become national winners. The winners this year were Jayne Beilke, Mary Gease, Pat Rogers, and Nancy Servis.

HARRY JOHN BROWN and the Milwaukee Symphony pleased the student body and faculty with his entertaining program with music of every type. The Music Honor Society was established. Mr. Rosenhauer, "The Big Chief," of the WAHISCAN celebrated his 25th year at Wausau Senior High school. Also, the WAHISCAN won a first class rating from the National Scholastic Press Association. The basketball team held second place in the conference at the close of the season, and to climax a series of unforgettable successes, Wausau Senior High school won the National Bellamy Award. Those who appreciate drama will never forget the production of the famous play "The Man Who Came To Dinner." Randy Smit as Sheridan Whiteside will remain comical for a long time. Nurcan Kinalioglu from Turkey, was the foreign exchange student. Laurie Telder and Paul Klemm reigned over the 1963 Prom, "Somewhere." All decorations were done in abstract form. The choirs presented the "Waltz Dream" in operetta style.

FALL OF 1963 brought colored leaves and an increased enrollment to Wausau High. One-Way signs appeared all over the school giving direction to chaos. The tragic death of President Kennedy came as shock to the students of Wausau High. The unexpected will often bring chaos but a well prepared nation can continue in the right direction.

THE PROMISE OF a winning football season was fulfilled by a team which has a record of 9-0 placing 1st in the state and 14th in the nation. With an average of 4,000 people in attendance at each game seating problems inevitably arose. The biggest was that of junior high students sitting in the Senior High section. Mr. Harry Johnson's mad hat which has become a standard sight during Wausau Week appeared again this year along with a multitude of others. The Skyrocket surprised everyone by coming out every two weeks instead of every three. Because of the size of the student body the first few assemblies this year were held in the boys' gym until closed circuit television was installed in the auditorium. Then the juniors and seniors used the auditorium while a few "lucky" sophomores got to watch TV in the Assembly Hall. The last of the individual class pictures were taken late in the fall and after the invasion by the class of '64 Toburens will never be the same.

THE FITTING OF caps and gowns is the beginning of the end. Seniors were carefully measured for that final night, graduation. Of course the sadness involved can easily be erased with the mere remembrance of the past. There are far too many things to remember with a smile. Earning money for the class of '64 seemed to be no apparent problem, but when the time came to spend it, confused faces were seen throughout the school. It's not very often that money poses this type of problem but then, the class of '64 was truly an exceptional one. Fads came on in full swing. Remember "Smoky the Grape", the elephant with flat feet and those clean-cut, soft-spoken, timid souls from England? Introverts known throughout the world as the Beatles swept the nation. The primary race for the mayor of Wausau was conducted with considerable vigor, especially in Mr. Howe's American Problems class. The debate squad came home as state champions. The National Honor Society was established and some seniors began that hectic search for the right college. Food was the password for fourth period Spanish and German classes. At the annual Chamber of Commerce meeting Admiral Rickover presented his views on education. Teachers opinions were varied. Spring brought SNOW (of all things) and the skiers began to look better.

Junior Class Officers

The class of '65 has shared a year it will never forget. Contributing factors include the Junior Prom, Junior Girls' Holiday Dance, and the arrival of the class rings. The class prepared for each of these events with enthusiasm and was proud and happy with the results. To add to this, and perhaps even more important, were the friendships made and retained

President: ROBERT NORBERG
 Vice-President: KENNETH PETERSEN
 Secretary: NANCY TINKHAM
 Class Adviser: MR. RAMON STADE

throughout the year.

Together the class will meet the problems ahead and put the knowledge already acquired to good use. The coming year will present a real challenge. It will be up to the class of '65 to meet it and accept the responsibility with determination.

Sophomore Class Officers

The sophomore class has completed the first important year of its high school career and in so doing has put forth its best efforts. The many things learned this past year will go with these students as they strive to further improve their record in the coming years. Although the sophs did not spend as much time on the "shelf" as sophomores in the past, this step down from the "shelf" will still serve to symbolize a step forward to new and greater responsibilities.

So with one year of varied experiences behind it, the class of 1966 is anticipating an exciting year.

STUDENT LIFE...

"Four spades," "What's purple and goes buzz?" "Take-Five," "The Bird's the Word"; student life was the pulse beat of our school. It was a time of academic growth, individual development, and social contact. Students were involved in many and varied activities. Entertainment and information from assemblies echoed in the words snakes, Charles King, and Joan of Arc. The kneehigh boots, patches on elbows, fancy knee socks, smooth hairdos and the bun were in vogue. Guitars were plucked as hootenannies rang with the strains from Peter, Paul and Mary and the Chad Mitchell trio. The senior class play cast made such phrases as "dried-up nunnery" and colleges and coffee houses unforgettable. The birthday song or round of applause for a dropped tray contrasted during the noon hour with last minutes of hurried study. Counting quarters at pizza parlors and occasional weekend parties were parts of student life. The soft brushing of long dresses with dance steps of young men at the Junior Girls' Dance and Spring Prom left many fond memories. Coketail parties and after-the-dance gatherings deepened the evening's enjoyment. These were the moments of student life . . . REMEMBER WHEN?

Exchange Students Promote World Friendship

Sun, sand, sky, and water met Janet Behm's eyes as she traveled to the Danish Isles in the East Sea. Pictured here are Christian, Frau Wolf, Janet, and Mechthild playing a game of beachball.

Right: Janet Behm, Gunnur Erkan, Gay Anderson, and Vicky Cadiz represent four foreign cultures from around the world.

Gay Anderson, Janet Behm, Gunnur Erkan, and Vicky Cadiz share a coke in the spirit of international cooperation. The experience related by each of these students was an important contribution to student life and to the community at large.

Thirty-five miles inland on the Weser River in northern Germany lies Bremen. Here I had an invaluable summer as a member of the Doctor Friedrich Wolf family. Christine, Mechthild, Christian, Mutti, and Vater are loved and cherished in my heart. I shall never forget them or the many other wonderful people and experiences. In two busy months I saw Bremen and Worpswede, visited Oma, Opa, and other relatives, attended school, and spent a month in Denmark. Denmark meant a lot of sight-seeing on Seeland-Copenhagen, Helsingor, Roskilde, and the beach.

The memories, experiences, friendships, knowledge, and insights that I received mean more to me than any words can express. Being an AFS'er has meant being a small part in a program involving fifty-six countries dedicated to world peace through understanding. It is a high goal, but it can be reached if we follow the AFS motto: "Walk together, talk together, and have peace."

Janet Behm

I like Wausau Senior High very much. When I came here I thought that I never could find my way in this big school. In time, I found not only the rooms but many friends. This has been an unforgettable year in my life. I really enjoyed staying here and have learned many new things. The best part was experiencing the friendliness and helpfulness of everyone. I hope this is not the end of our friendship. As we say in Turkish, "Hepinire en iyi dilehler."

Gunnur Erkan

Gay, her sister Pat, Mrs. Anderson.

To live in Wausau has been the most wonderful experience I have ever had. Many customs are quite different, but everyone was so nice to me that the new adjustments became much easier. As a South American I found that in the United States the teen-ager is much more independent; his activities are mainly centered around the school. The size of this school also surprised me. I will never forget how lost I was at the beginning, but it helped me make many wonderful friends.

Vicky Cadiz

Vicky's family: Oscar, Senora de Cadiz, Mireya, Senor Cadiz.

America to me is more than a country that I learned about in geography class or somewhere I dreamed of visiting. It is real people, places, and friends—an indelible memory of one of the most wonderful years of my life. Wausau High School has been an integral part of my stay here, and I have met many people, some of whom will become my life-long friends. I have seen life through the eyes of an American student, and I hope that at the same time I have been able to give you a glimpse of English life. I hope that it will not be too long before I return to Wausau and renew the wonderful friendships that I have made here.

Gay Anderson

Stecher and Horwitz, versatile duo-pianists, delighted the student body with many modern as well as classical melodies.

"Joan of Arc" presented on Thursday, January 16, combined the history of the Hundred Year's War with hysterical comedy to produce a very entertaining assembly.

Cultural Assemblies Enrich Student Life

The concerts given by the President's Marine Band (pictured below) and the Hamline University Band were very well received. Numbers ranging from Bach's Fugues to Sousa's marches broadened our musical appreciation.

Faculty Helps Kick-Off WAUSAU WEEK

"ATTENTION: Janet Behm, Paula Disbrow, Barb Johnson, Ann Schlitz, and Cindy Strand have been nominated for the 1963 Wausau Day Queen!"

This announcement paved the way to the most fun-filled Wausau Week that Senior High has ever known. Spirited campaigning began almost immediately as each candidate set her sights on Wausau Eve and the crown. Officially, the gala week was opened by the Kick-off Assembly on Monday morning as Mr. Brockmeyer introduced a winning team to the student body. Excitement mounted day by day, highlighted on Wausau Eve by the personalities of Charles King, Lu Ann Hyland, the Dixieland Five, Willie Davis, and Herb Adderley. As the final minutes of Wausau Eve ticked by, Ann Schlitz reigned over the dance in the manner befitting a true queen. Victory over the Old Abes on Friday night brought Wausau Week to a marvelous climax.

Leaping high into the air, a Wausau cheerleader generates pep at the Kick-off Assembly.

Students Are Swept Up By Vigorous Campaigning

Five happy girls display original posters for the oncoming queen election. The posters took many hours of hard work and are symbolic of a successful Wausau Week.

Junior Girls Sponsor "Holiday Enchantment"

The familiar strains of "Misty", "Stardust", and "Moon River" filled the Wausau Club as more than two hundred fifty couples danced to the music of Dick Schroeder and his orchestra. The ballroom was arrayed with decorations of blue and green lending to a theme of "Holiday Enchantment." Giant Christmas balls spanned the stage, and tri-colored streamers ornamented the ceiling. Four freshmen girls served punch to weary dancers in the delightful Terrace Room. Coke-tail parties before and dinner parties after the dance helped to make it a superb evening — certainly one to remember.

Mrs. Dzubay, faculty advisor for the dance committee, and Peggy Westgate and Sue Thomasgard, general chairmen, began planning the event early in November. Committee members worked until the very last minute making decorations, providing refreshments and chaperones, and organizing the finances. The long-awaited day, Friday, December 27, finally arrived and rewarded the girls for a job well done.

Mary Kay Bachhuber expresses her concern about the unfinished decorations.

Weary couples take time out from dances to enjoy punch and cookies.

TOPHATTERS . . . . . 1964

Doug Reiche, Student Director
 Stu Schaller, Soloist

Jazz . . . a musical term symbolized in Wausau High by the Tophatters. With the sounds of mellow saxes and blasting brass the Tophatters swung into their 23rd annual show the night of January 9, 1964. Bob Norberg handled the MC work, and Doug Reiche directed the band as they played to a very receptive audience of more than 1500 people. The existence of the Tophatters as the only stage band in the area has given Mr. Evenstad, the faculty advisor, and all the fellows in the group the unique opportunity to play contemporary music in a near professional atmosphere. Along with the 1964 show, the Tophatters played for several dances and other school functions.

hythm: (l. to r.) Lindow, Short, Johnson, ook, Hook

A humorous touch was given by Tom Schwartz and Jim Smit in their rendition of "Elderly Man River".

Vocalists: Roger Spiecher and Margie Goldberg. Alternates were Kirby Carpenter and Renee Wallach.

Dancers Mary Geske and Leslie Swazee added a bit of color and sparkle to the show as they danced to "Fast Company" and "Dateline Newport".

“Take Her, She’s Mine” Proves A Huge Success

Miss Stelmahoske, play director, discusses last minute details with her assistant, Miss Schadney.

The Class of '64 secured early rights to “Take Her, She’s Mine” and achieved production ahead of Hollywood! Paul Devantier played the father role made famous on Broadway by Art Carney and Laurie Telder starred as the intense, vivacious co-ed, Mollie Michaelson. This play was a switch to the light and modern for W.H.S. Thespians who had been working with stage classics for the past few years. The play takes Mollie through two years of college, years of poignant suffering for her worried, adoring father.

Notable also was a production technique used for the first time on the Senior High stage: part of the dormitory action was set on rollers and moved out toward the audience as the play’s scene changed. All stage areas were used for the many fragment sets, including the airport, the home interior, the college yard, and the dormitory. This provided a real challenge for the lighting crew with special work being done by Jim Kufahl and Dennis Lerch. Helping Miss Stelmahoske to direct the production this year was Miss Schadney of the English Department, who advised during special rehearsals and coached some individual actors.

"Madwoman of Chaillot"

The spring play was one of the most fantastic ever attempted by Wausau High Thespians as well as one of the largest in cast size. It was a comedy-fantasy by Jean Giraudoux set in the twilight zone of the not quite true.

At the Cafe Chez Francis, the president (Roger Spiecher) and the baron (Howie Christensen) plotted to tear up Paris in order to unearth the oil which a prospector (Bob Norberg) believed he had located in the neighborhood. When these grandiose plans came to the attention of the "Mad Woman of Chaillot" (Sue Bahringer), she decided to have the "crooks" tried and condemned to extermination. In a scene of mounting poetic-comedy, she sent the culprits one by one, lured by the scent of oil, to a wildly imaginative destruction.

Audiences were delighted by such charming characters as the ragpicker (Steve Weiner), the deaf-mute (Bill Jensen), Madame Constance (Laurie Telder), the demure Madame Gabrielle (Mary Gilbertson), and the flamboyant Madame Josephine (Carol Knaack).

Japanese Motif Enhances Annual Junior Prom

"Sayonara", climax to the social events of the year, was hosted by the Junior Class on Friday, May 8, from 8:30 to 12:30. The music of Lynn Winch delighted the dancers at the Youth Building in Marathon Park as well as at the Post Prom party at the Wausau Club. Junior Class President Bob Norberg and his date Turi Stolen reigned over the affair and led the traditional Grand March. The Prom was certainly a whirl of excitement although little now remains except fond memories.

Over twenty people on the decorations committee worked tirelessly for weeks before the Prom in order to make "Sayonara" a true success.

ACTIVITIES . . .

Over thirty organizations were spotlighted as they functioned throughout the year. Precise sounds of the marching and concert band were heard at the games, assemblies and musical programs. Voices projected in harmonious chords, oratorical presentations and strains of strings. Woodwinds and brass showed the expression of many students. The artist used brush and palette to express individual creativity. Skyrocket deadlines pressed staffers for time, and WAHISCAN members worked to meet their deadlines, too. Math, science, and language club members acquired a deeper knowledge in academic areas, while future nurses, teachers and farmers profited from clubs designed especially for them. The Student Council and International Club gave members a better understanding of government and the world around them. New groups were established as students' interest widened into fields of literature and philosophy. Enthusiasm and interest in the school and its functions was encouraged by the Pep Club. Club advisors, officers and planning committees worked to provide enjoyable and stimulating programs, inviting speakers, showing slides, and other various projects. Belonging to a club gave students a sense of fellowship, of benefitting themselves and others. These are the groups we enjoyed . . . REMEMBER WHEN?

Putting together a yearbook is a pleasurable task. The result touches each student, receiving varied opinions and many signatures. With the largest number of WAHISCANS ever sold, the staff applied itself to the production of a top quality book. From the time work began in the summer to the deadline in spring, eighteen minds directed blue pencils, page layouts and copy thoughts for the 2116 copies to be printed. It is a taxing job at times to find a variety of layouts to hold student interest, to write copy concerning unfamiliar activities, and to complete pages when the events aren't ready. The strain of the difficult moments aided the staff in meeting deadlines. Helping hands and bright humor not only alleviated tension, but induced unforgettable times. In spite of occasional parties and relaxed days, the ever-present deadlines meant work, work every sixth period, after school and occasionally Saturdays. As the year slipped by the day of publication approached. Waiting for the finished products, editors worried. Mistakes appeared, but they were few. The pride and pleasure shared was the real award for the year's labor. The publications picnic brought the hopeful boasts of an All-American book. In the opinion of each staff member the 48th Volume is the finest WAHISCAN ever produced.

Sometimes there are just too many Pictures.

Production As Student Body of WHS Expands

This was a year of change for the SKYROCKET. In order to give better coverage to current news and activities, the SKYROCKET has been published every two weeks instead of every three. Because there is a great deal of work in putting out a bi-monthly paper, staff-members were assigned to work in Room 208 during two periods of the day. One group was assigned to work during the third period and another group was assigned to work during the sixth period.

There were also changes made in the technical aspects of the paper. A new process has been adopted which makes the pictures in the SKYROCKET look more clear and distinct. A white paper makes it more readable for a much greater length of time. The success of the new approaches tried this year was largely due to this year's hard-working staff. There were over sixty reporters who at least tried to get their assignments in on time and five hard-working typists. Co-editors Barbara Maahs and Marianne West and Assistant Editor Karen Erdman succeeded in keeping the office running and meeting deadlines. The very important business staff headed by Business Manager Kathy Groinski did an efficient job in helping to finance the paper.

This is something truly unusual: The SKYROCKET staff working!

Plans Are Started By Wausau High Student

First Semester Officers:
 Klemm, Telder, Devantier

Student Council Commissioners:
 Plybon, Marth, Will, West, Rydell.

STUDENT COUNCIL — The Student Council is an organization which exemplifies the type of government that runs our country so efficiently. Each homeroom elects one student to represent it. The students who are elected take on the responsibility of bringing to the council all important ideas that are brought to them. The council then considers, discusses, and acts upon these ideas to better our school.

It is composed of the social, pep, school affairs, and publicity committees. Various committees are set up for special projects, such as the Candy Sale and the Junior Red Cross Drive. The Student Council is also responsible for the all-school dances, football hops, assembly programs, and much of the Wausau Week Program. In addition, it makes collections for the American Field Service Program. The major event in the council this year was the trip to Chattanooga, Tennessee, for the presentation of the Bellamy Award to that school. The officers of the first semester council attended. The safe driving program was also continued and students were cautioned about their driving. All of these duties are designed to help make WHS the kind of school in which we belong and can take great pride.

Second Semester Officers:
Fulmer, Parsch, Kalinke

Honors Are Awarded To Deserving Students

BADGER BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE

UTHROTAR — The Rotary Club of Wausau chooses eight boys each month of the school year to come to their meetings every Monday noon at the Wausau Club. Four of these boys are from Wausau Senior High School. The main reason this is done is to give certain young men in Wausau a look at what the Rotary Club does for this area. These boys are shown how a real businessman acts and what his business is like.

Fellowship and service are two important ideals stressed by Rotarians. Speakers and slides on current events are often presented, or an educator will speak to the group. At one of the meetings, the Senior High Debate Squad debated before the group.

BADGER BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE — Badgers Boys' and Girls' State gave eight outstanding juniors the opportunity to take a closer look at our state government by personal experience. Throughout the week, the students attended lectures, caucuses, political forums and local, county, and state meetings. The main point of interest was the election of state officials and the convening of the "Congress." Girls' State was held on the University of Wisconsin campus in Madison and Boys' State on the Ripon College campus in Ripon.

Pep Promoters Generate Life and Enthusiasm

MAJORETTES — The majorettes are the good-looking girls that everybody except the football boys got to watch during the half-times of the football games. They are members of the band who worked very hard to get on the squad. They work with the band during the assigned periods. Their routines are worked out by the members themselves. Many hard, long hours were spent in learning and perfecting their routines so that there would be no errors when they performed.

PEP BAND—The Pep Band is made up of members of the concert band. They generated pep for many of our basketball, football, and wrestling matches. The band also performed for pep assemblies. The students were doing work beyond their duty, so to speak, because while playing in this band, they had a hard time trying to watch all of the action on the field and play the right notes at the same time. A great deal of credit goes to these students.

Ronald E. Evenstad
 Band Director

ORCHESTRA—The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Riege, practiced hard for the concerts it presented this year. The first was the concert for the Kiwanis Club. This event showed the great potential of this group. It also presented a Christmas concert, a concert with the band in the spring for the two junior highs, music for Baccalaureate and Commencement and participated in the Annual Orchestra Festival. Smaller groups participated in solo and ensemble work for special presentation.

Along with these activities the real objective of the orchestra was to encourage and promote individual initiative and talent in each student.

BAND—The band, under its new director, Mr. Evenstad, had a very busy year. Starting in August, they worked hard for the football half-time shows and Band Day at the University. Practice then began for their first Annual Christmas Concert, for the Tophatter show, solo and ensemble contest, and also for the Spring Music Festival held in Wausau. The band competed in concert, sight-reading and marching.

Emphasis was placed on the individual progress of each member of the band in tone, technique, rhythm and band musicianship, public performances, leadership qualities; the development of good attitudes, dependability and punctuality were also stressed.

The affirmative squad, composed of Mary Gilbertson, Steve Weiner, and John Lang, was undefeated in four rounds, while the negative team, composed of Charmaine Smith and Carol Schwichtenberg, won three out of four. By winning first place, the WHS debaters climaxed their most successful season in the history of our school. They won 90% of the invitational meets and 1st or 2nd place in all of the nine tournaments.

The students first compete in our home speech contest which selects the two top contestants from each group. These "A" winners then move into the valley, district, and finally the state contest where the "A" winners receive gold medals. The Wausau team has done an excellent job this year and sent many students to the State contest.

Vocalists Entertain School and Community

CHOIR — The choir experienced a busy year, as usual. A new repertoire of Christmas songs was accomplished for the following Christmas programs; Dec. 13, Wausau Kiwanis Club; Dec. 16, First American State Bank, and our own Christmas Assembly. Individual soloists and ensemble members took part in local elimination competitions early in March for the April 11 Solo and Ensemble Festival held here in Wausau, the Spring Concert with the high school band and orchestra in May before the May 16 Concert groups Festival. The choir performed exceptionally well at the Baccalaureate.

GLEE CLUB — The two glee clubs (girls and mixed) worked on part-singing, solo work, some general performance work (seasonal), folk music of the U.S.A. and all nations, recordings of class work and studied present day musical plays and operettas including the musical "highlights" of each. Among the musicals studied were "Oklahoma," "Carousel," "My Fair Lady," "West Side Story," and "Music Man." They learned to plan and direct their own class programs. Groups also received class instruction in good singing techniques. Classes were combined for all performances.

Modern Music Masters Serve Wausau High

MUSIC CLUB — To enjoy music to a fuller extent, one must understand some of the basic fundamentals. This the Music Club has tried to accomplish. By having club periods devoted to scale building and learning different rhythms, the club has tried to give this knowledge to interested students.

To provide a well-balanced program of music through the year, dues were collected to buy musical supplies. Under the direction of Mr. Evenstad, the club's advisor, this program was very successful.

TRI-M — To further the reputation of our school as a music center, a new organization, Modern Music Masters, has made its place in W.H.S. Modern Music Masters, often called Tri-M, is an international society. A student must retain an A average in music and a B average in academic subjects to remain a member. 56 students are now members, and should be very proud of their membership. Under the direction of Miss Pierce and Mr. Riege, they ushered for the afternoon performance of the Marine Band Concert and installed the new members in the fall. The sponsors include Miss Pierce, Mr. Evenstad and Mr. Riege.

Journalism, Philosophy Create Interest

LYCEUM—Lyceum is a new informal and unstructured group at Senior High. It consists of students who meet every other Saturday night to discuss significant topics. Among the subjects are: nonconformity, evolution, conservatism vs. liberalism, and communism. The first half of each three-hour seminar was devoted to the presentation of the material by a person familiar with the field. At the end of the presentation, a five minute break was taken before discussion was begun.

QUILL AND SCROLL—Membership in the Quill and Scroll is annually given in recognition for achievements in the field of high school journalism. Staff members on the WAHISCAN and SKYROCKET publications are recommended by their advisors for having shown outstanding ability in writing, editing, or managing a school publication. The National Quill and Scroll Secretary approves qualifying juniors or seniors in the upper third of their class. They are officially accepted at a special program and tea held in the spring when they receive their pins.

Studying Customs and Language Gives

FRENCH CLUB — Le Cercle Francais has become a standing-room-only club, with over forty members crowding room 204 for the first Wednesday meetings. Club officers are president: Tom Shoulders; vice-president, Oscar Larson; and Chris Carspecken, secretary-treasurer.

Club meetings are varied with programs planned to afford enjoyable times for all, along with opportunity for every member to improve his knowledge of French music, games, and special reports.

During the year Le Cercle Francais has sponsored candy sales to provide funds for scholarship donations and club expenses.

SPANISH CLUB — This year the Spanish Club has been fortunate in having personal accounts of the Spanish-speaking countries. The topics for the programs ranged from singing Christmas carols in Spanish to the cultural history of Mexico and native Columbian dances. The Christmas party was climaxed with the breaking of the pinata and the eating of its contents. The guest speakers included Mario Schjetnan from Mexico and Vicky Cadiz, our exchange student from Bogota, Columbia. The officers are president: Bruce Closway; vice-president, Vicky Cadiz; and secretary-treasurer Sue Thomasgard.

Us Understanding of Foreign Countries

LATIN CLUB — The purpose of the Latin Club was to acquaint Latin students with Roman life and customs, other than those to which they were exposed in class. Since it is a required activity, it also serves as a supplement to classwork. The major activity of the Latin Club in the past year was the Latin banquet, the theme was the founding of Rome. Money was earned for this activity by sponsoring a basketball hop and a noon hour candy sale. The Latin Club officers for this year were. President: John Lang; Vice-President, Barbara Johnson; Secretary, Barbara Hayes; Treasurer, Jane Slayton. The advisor was Miss Marsh.

GERMAN CLUB OFFICERS
 Weiner, Smit, Behm, Coleson

GERMAN CLUB — Students interested in the study of Germany and the German language were invited to join the German Club. (Das Deutsche Verein). The club quickly proved itself popular and worthwhile. Slides and movies of Deutschland and Osterreich (Austria) provided valuable insights into the life and people of those countries. At the Christmas meeting the German Club members, who were also band members, enthusiastically played Christmas songs and fellow members listened as they munched treats provided by club members. Gunnar Erkan, a foreign exchange student from Turkey who spent several years in Germany, talked to the group, and a German Hootenanny was held. Janet Behm was elected president; Jim Smit, vice-president; Steve Weiner, secretary; and Roger Coleson, treasurer.

Chemistry, Curling Clubs Both Produce Masters

CURLING CLUB — Curling in Wausau was started in 1947, some 16 years ago. Since its origin, the club has maintained a healthy growth. The boys are organized into rinks and play a round-robin series of games. Each year the club takes part in bonspiels sponsored by the Poynette, Wausau, Madison, and Portage high schools. In February and March, the club plays in the sectional playdowns and the winner takes part in the state championship. This year the state playdown was held in Wausau.

The final event of the season is the mixed bonspiel in which the boys and girls team up.

CHEMISTRY CLUB — The Chemistry Club was primarily organized to give those students who are interested in chemistry a broader concept of the field. This is accomplished through the use of student demonstrations, outside speakers and field trips. The December meeting was devoted to the sale of carmel apples. The entire proceeds were used to establish a scholarship. This year the 10,000th apple was sold. William Tessmer was the recipient. The carmel apple sale started 10 years ago. Since the beginning, more than $900 has been contributed to the scholarship fund.

Sciences Studied Through Our Environment

BIOLOGY CLUB — The Biology Club meetings are planned by the students. Included in this year's meetings were slides and reports on fossils and prehistoric animals, a report on the effects of alcohol, and informative films on lung cancer. One group of students decided to dissect an elderly chicken, which proved to be interesting to those surgically inclined, but quite annoying to those allergic to feathers.

PHYSICS CLUB — The Physics Club meetings were devoted to adding to the students' knowledge of applied physics in the world around them. Various movies and speakers were presented. A trip was taken to Marathon Electric where members watched machines being made. One meeting was devoted to observing the sky through a telescope.

Minivac and NCR Figure Into Math Clubs

ADVANCED MATH CLUB — The advanced Mathematics Club followed the suggestions of the National Council of Mathematics and spent the first Wednesday sessions on Computer Oriented Mathematics. Its president became proficient in operating the MINIVAC 601 computer owned by the math department. A field trip to the local National Cash Register wholesale training center increased vocational interest in computer skills.

The officers are: president, Jeffery Johnson; vice-president, William Arvold; secretary, Jane Slayton; and reporter, Gloria Gereau.

GENERAL MATH CLUB—The General Math Club was for students who were enrolled in or have had first year algebra or first year geometry. The monthly meetings included such varied topics as slide rule, number bases, probability, and brain teasers. Various state and national math tests were reviewed as part of the club program.

The officers were: president, Geoffrey Canfield; vice-president, Van Driessen; and secretary, Mary Camps.

Gregg Clubs Promote Commercial Interests

JUNIOR GREGG — Junior Gregg is a club open to all in beginning shorthand. The club officers this year were: Betty Kufalk, president; Phyllis Blaschka, vice-president; and Sharon Gremler, secretary.

During the year the club heard speakers from various businesses in the Wausau area. This gave the members an opportunity to meet people who have entered the member's chosen fields. One of the biggest events was the hop that Junior Gregg and Senior Gregg sponsored after the Wausau-Eau Claire Memorial basketball game. Junior Gregg also awarded a $100 scholarship to a deserving student.

SENIOR GREGG — The club's activities included trips to the Marathon County Court House and the First American State Bank Building. While at the Court House members spoke to Judge Keberle and Mrs. Grell, the court reporter. They had several guest speakers, including Miss Tilda Mohr, president of the Wausau Chapter of the National Secretaries' Association, and Mr. Jerome Ringwelski, a civil service examiner. The Junior and Senior Gregg Clubs sponsored a basketball hop on January 17. Twistin' Natty and Dis-Cards provided live entertainment. Officers were: Shirley Walters, president; Bonnie Weiss, vice president; and Sue Plautz, secretary-treasurer.

Top Row: Schield, Woller, Wilke, Kuckhahn, Buth, Wyro, Machel, Ames, Tessmer, Goetsch, Sturm, Schmidt.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB—The International Club aims at increasing the students' knowledge of the world today by presenting speakers from many different regions of the world who spoke of social, geographical, and political aspects from their individual countries. One of the speakers was a man who had been to Africa for some time and had met Dr. Schweitzer. He showed his slides to the group and discussed his work and travels with the group.

The officers of the Club this year had an extra job to perform. International Night, which was under the direction of the language clubs, was changed to the International Club. The language clubs were given a chance to make money by selling "goods" from their various countries after the movie and program.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB OFFICERS:
Anderson, Parsch, Erkan

School and International Relations Stressed

PEP CLUB OFFICERS:
Miller, Badten, Plybon, Telder, Beatty

PEP CLUB—The Pep Club's purpose is quite obvious: to promote pep among the students of WHS. The club is led by the varsity cheerleaders. They plan the meetings, and make sure the plans are carried out. The meetings are filled with the learning of new cheers, chants, and new ideas for Wausau Week and other special events. The pom-pom and glove sections that livened the half-times at games came from the pep club.

SKI CLUB OFFICERS:
Carspecken, Fox, Trembath, West

SKI CLUB—Movies were a regular feature of the Ski Club meetings. They were on skiing in general and such events as the Olympics and the ski meets in which the Wausau High Ski Team competed. The pictures were either taken by a member of this school or obtained from the library. A style show was presented with different types of ski clothes displayed. A few trips were planned, but due to many circumstances, some of them were not carried out. A party was the climax of the year.

The club officers were as follows: Chuck Fox, president; Doug Trembath, vice-president; secretary, Marianne West; and treasurer, Chris Carspecken.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY—One of the greatest distinctions which can be awarded to a student is membership in the National Honor Society. The society was established this year through student-faculty effort. It was founded to give recognition to students who have maintained at least a 3.25 grade average, shown leadership, and exemplary character. This honorary society is exclusively devoted to members of the graduating class. On April 26 a special program was held for the presentation of the NHS pin and certificate. It is a climax to a senior's high school work and achievements. The success of their records enriches Wausau High's tradition of excellence in scholarship.

Camera Skills Developed Through Education

CAMERA CLUB — The main objective of the Camera Club is to improve the pictures taken by the members. This year the members have shown and criticized their own pictures—particularly their color transparencies. The club borrowed a set of last year's winning pictures from the Eastman Kodak Company and Scholastic Magazines. These were pictures taken by high school students all over the country and were helpful in pointing out qualities of a good picture. Two of our local professional photographers — Mr. Toburen and Mr. Gustafson spoke at club meetings and presented very informative programs.

PROJECTIONIST CLUB — One of the most important clubs in our school is the Projectionist Club. It is a service club which attempts to meet the needs of Senior High teachers and students by furnishing experienced operators of audio-visual equipment. Responsible students train themselves on their own time. When sufficiently experienced, they are assigned to the A-V room during their study halls and the noon hour. There they maintain and operate equipment or are sent, upon request, to rooms where slides or short movies are shown. Distinguished operators are honored with A-V letter awards.

The club president for 1963-1964 was Bill Holster. The advisor was Mr. Stade.

Students Learn of Vocational Opportunities

FUTURE TEACHERS' CLUB — The 1963-1964 FTA officers were: Gary Baumann, president; Ian Ninneman, vice-president; Jill Goodwin, secretary-treasurer; and Karen McDonald, historian. Some members attended a conference at Neenah High School November 23 and the 1964 state convention of FTA at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Campus February 29. The group helped at the CWEA Convention and at both PTA's to earn money to be awarded to the outstanding graduating FTA senior. There were talks given and a resume by Rosemary Weyeneth on her stay at Northwestern University.

FUTURE NURSES' CLUB — The activities the F.N.C. engaged in throughout the year included caroling at the County Home, sponsoring a basketball hop, and working as volunteers at local hospitals and the County Home. Money earned from candy sale was put into a scholarship fund, and awarded to a graduating senior who is entering nursing. The club sponsored panel discussions. This year's officers were: Peggy Goetsch, president; Sue Shibilski, vice-president; Gloria Meseke, secretary; and Sandy Will, treasurer.

Art Appreciation Developed By Clubs

DRAMA CLUB OFFICERS:
 Smit, Weiner. Absent: Krolikowski

ART CLUB—The Art Club met at the museum for one meeting. At this meeting an excellent lecture was given by Mr. Schoenberger. His lecture was on ceramics, glazes, and how and where these ceramics may be used. The example he used was a ceramic mural to be used at the YMCA. At another meeting a movie "Color and Clay" was shown. The Art Club also sponsored a dance. The decorations for the dance were done by members and consisted of works of art, either copies of famous paintings or their own originals.

DRAMA CLUB—The Drama Club consists of people who are interested in any form of drama. No talent is necessary to join the club. The meetings are devoted to different types of expression, such as play reading, speaking, or impromptu acting. Because the club has such varied activities, everyone has a favorite that he wishes to perfect. If the interest lies in listening rather than performing, the students may just watch and learn in that way.

Perfection, an Essential For Good Marksmen

RIFLE CLUB—"A real rifleman always handles a gun safely" is the slogan followed by the Rifle Club. Gun safety and shooting were especially stressed this year. In addition, outside speakers appeared to give tips on such varied subjects as pistol shooting and gun care. Senior High's club competed in a shoot with other high schools in the area and conducted several field trips as part of the program for the year. Members worked hard at improving their skill with the rifle. This is very beneficial and makes hunting a safer sport.

ARCHERY CLUB—The first Wednesday of every month the Archery Club met at 12:00 noon, and if transportation was available they went out to the Rib Mountain Bowman's Range on Highway 51.

When the weather permitted, the members followed an outdoor trail that had previously been laid out with deer targets. When the weather was bad, they held indoor competition in the clubhouse. The members' scores were recorded for team standings.

Attempts were again made this year to establish regular competition meets with other schools, such as Merrill, as was done in previous years.

Attractive and Active Themes Draw Girls

Standing: Olson, Behm, Beilke, Carspecken, Goetsch, Hennig, Smith.
 Sitting: Schmidt, Neitzke, West, Maahs, Disbrow, Brown.

MODERN MISS — This club offers information to today's "Modern Miss." The topic selected varies each year. This year it was "The Theory of Attractiveness." The theme was fulfilled through presentations by outside speakers in these areas: posture and modeling, business etiquette, hair styling, cosmetology, and social etiquette. Although it is a new club, it was one of the larger clubs in school. This is a good sign that girls are interested in their general appearance. Kathy Dorn was elected corresponding secretary and Marilyn Dietzler was elected recording secretary.

G.A.A. — Four hundred and sixty one girls participated in the Girls' Athletic Association indicating that boys weren't the only sports enthusiasts. Physical fitness was important to figure-conscious ladies. The real stimulus was interest in the competition of popular games and sports. Activities introduced new ways to enjoy leisure time, as well as providing equipment and opponents for the continuation of interests in curling, badminton, tennis, bowling, table tennis, volleyball, basketball, golf, and archery tournaments.

Monitors Provide Invaluable Service

MONITORS — The monitors comprise a group of over 90 students who give up one of their study periods for the purpose of serving our school. Their duties include: collecting and alphabetizing lists of absentees, collecting and delivering all types of passes and messages throughout the building, operating the telephone switchboard, and performing duties of many kinds in the offices of the school nurse, guidance department, and the main office, and attendance offices.

 Stitting: Schoeneman, Fisher, Gantner.

CONSERVATION CLUB — The Conservation Club provides an area of learning for boys interested in the field of conservation. Meetings are devoted to films or speakers on various subjects. The club provides a service to the school by supplying the labor for much of the work completed at the school forest during the year. They are involved in tasks such as thinning and pruning pine plantations, aiding in the construction of buildings for the school's Outdoor Education Program, improvements on the club house, and planting trees and shrubs. The officers were: President, Gene Woller; vice-president, Wayne Krueger; and secretary-treasurer, Dennis Bentz.

ELECTRONICS CLUB — The Electronics Club provides an opportunity for members to utilize the specialized equipment of the electronics shop not ordinarily available to them. In addition, the club takes several field trips, including WSAU-TV and radio, Employers Mutual Data Processing Center, and Marathon Battery Co. The club also has some members operating the closed circuit television for school assembly programs and the public address system in the gym for basketball games. Officers were: President, Brian Gantner; vice-president, Bill Reichart; and secretary-treasurer, Gale Volk.

Future Insured by Sound Agricultural Study

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA — The Wausau Senior High School Chapter of Future Farmers of America, commonly known as the FFA, is an organization of boys enrolled in vocational agriculture. The local chapter, under the direction of Mr. Hylkema, participated in various contests which were judging, speech work, farm safety, and trips to other parts of the state.

The boys in the club were interested in the development of character, qualities of leadership, and farming programs. These areas were stressed in all of their work. The FFA helped prepare these boys for a future in farming and other related fields.

JUNIOR DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION —

The association is composed of agriculture students who are interested in promoting the dairy industry. Dairy herd testing and record keeping were the major activities of the club. The local club is a member of the state association and participated in all the state activities. The members attended district meetings and the state convention. By doing this, they were able to compare notes on what was being done in all of the chapters in the state, and bring home new ideas for their own group. Mr. Hylkema was adviser to the club.

Personnel Staffs Work Industiously Behind

CUSTODIANS—The cleanliness and repair of our school are in the hands of the custodians. They sweep 6,000 square feet of floor each day, shovel the snow from the sidewalks around the school, repair windows, lockers, and desks, and care for the grass, flowers, and shrubbery. In general, they keep the amount of dirt and weeds down and the buildings up. Their efforts give our school the pleasant atmosphere that adds so much to our campus.

CAFETERIA STAFF—The cafeteria is the scene of most of the activity during the noon hour. It is used as an eating place and a center where friends gather to discuss the various problems of the day. It serves between 475 and 525 students daily. The staff begins work at eight o'clock and stays until the middle of the afternoon cleaning up and getting prepared for the next day's work. We are grateful for the services that the staff does for our school.

SPORTS . . .

Speeding feet, flying balls, yelling cheerleaders, roaring crowds - all were a part of the sports scene at Senior High. Boosters turned out in all types of weather. On the field, the track, the floor, they watched as the Lumberjacks drove, dribbled, ran, sprinted, vaulted, pitched, smashed and putted their way to victory. Cheerleaders leaped, yelled, and led students and fans in support of the team. Loyal Lumberjacks responded as they cheered their favorites. With fall came football, and the gridiron season which will be long remembered. The state football championship trophy stands as a reminder. Lack of snow in early winter brought groans from frustrated skiers. Indoors, the sportslight swept over basketball players, wrestlers, swimmers and curlers, demonstrating their talents and energy. With the spring, field men leaped and hurdled and track men ran and ran. Men in shorts met across the net and put racket to ball, batteries warmed in the dugout, infielders dug balls out of the dirt and outfielders chased the long flies; golfers drove, chipped and putted. That was the beginning, and with the swish of pom poms, a lovely queen, game hops, energetic cheerleaders and roaring fans, the Lumberjacks added another lasting sports memory to Senior High . . . REMEMBER WHEN?

FOOTBALL

The new Big Rivers Conference Championship is indeed a prize, but to be rated number one in the state from the first game through the last was the outstanding achievement of 1963.

The squad finished its season as one of the best in the past thirty years. This was the second highest scoring team in Wausau history with 335 points in nine games. The defense was also outstanding as no team was able to score against the first team after the first game.

The coaches hoped that the line would gain enough experience in the two first non-conference games to make Wausau a real threat to the Big Rivers Crown. If there was a single factor that paved the way to an undefeated season, it was the terrific spirit developed by the fine squad. Twice in the first game they had to come from behind in order to win. After that it was a matter of the team rolling up their sleeves and getting the job done. "Victory is Sweat" certainly fits this group.

The spirit and tradition established by the seniors will be of real help to the 1964 squad.

Kuehl, Kalinke Named Top Stars on State Team

WAUSAU-32 MARINETTE-24

With Wausau leading 13-12 and four seconds remaining in the half, Marinette scored on a 71 yard run and held an 18-13 half-time lead. In the second half with Al Kuehl showing his usual form Wausau scored three touchdowns (and held on to win). Kuehl ran for 113 yards.

WAUSAU-47 STEVENS POINT-12

With two plays gone in the first quarter Jerry McCabe grabbed a Point pass. The Jacks then proceeded to march up and down the field building up a 40-0 half-time lead. Wausau was led by Al Kuehl who averaged 18 yards per carry while scoring 18 points and Jerry Quaderer who also scored three times.

Al Kuehl (44), Lumberjack star halfback, was selected by 41 of 50 coaches as the outstanding back on the UPI and AP high school all-state football teams for 1963.

WAUSAU-39 LA CROSSE LOGAN-0

Midway in the first quarter Rick Eggebrecht intercepted a pass and in a little over three minutes Wausau had scored three touchdowns. After halftime the reserves proved that they had potential by converting on a 53 yard pass play, Dave Marth to Jim Schultz.

Quarterback Eggebrecht played a great offensive as well as defensive game.

WAUSAU-47 EAU CLAIRE NORTH-0

Wausau rolled up 26 points in the second quarter breaking a 0-0 tie and dashing any hopes of an upset. Eleven runners shared the 307 yard rushing total. Al Kuehl averaged 27.5 yards per carry for 110 yards and two touchdowns, and Chip Winters had 93 yards in five carries for one touchdown.

WAUSAU-12 EAU CLAIRE MEMORIAL-0

Wausau Week was climaxed in this hard fought game between two highly regarded teams. Wausau, held to its lowest scoring output of the season, was near perfect in defeating the "Old Abes". The Jacks' two touchdowns came on a perfectly executed 71 yard run by Jerry Quaderer and a 26 yard pass play, Dave Marth to Al Kuehl.

Rick Eggebrecht (14), steady, reliable, and highly respected Wausau quarterback, intercepts a pass against Marinette.

WAUSAU-53 MENOMINEE-7

After scoring 26 points in the second quarter, and holding a 32-7 half time lead, the Jacks coasted to a 53-7 win and remained undefeated for six games. Al Kuehl scored four touchdowns and passed to Jerry Quaderer for another. Runs by Chip Winters, Lynn Buss, and Quaderer's 56 yard run rounded out the scoring.

WAUSAU-38 LA CROSSE CENTRAL-0

Not until guard Chuck Donner had recovered a fumble and run 20 yards for a touchdown did Wausau begin to move. Chip Winters averaged nearly 14 yards per carry and Al Kuehl increased his scoring lead with three touchdown runs, one of 38 yards.

WAUSAU-13 SUPERIOR-0

Sporting an outstanding defense, the Jacks overwhelmed a much heavier Superior team. Al Kuehl was again the "workhorse", carrying 22 times for 146 yards. He also scored both touchdowns on runs of 2 and 39 yards. The defense was led by Mike Kalinke, John Wiechman, Paul Evans, Tom Ortwein, and linebackers Chuck Donner and Jim Schultz.

WAUSAU-54 CHIPPEWA FALLS-0

Wausau warmed up an otherwise frigid evening by breaking six offensive team records and emulsifying Chippewa Falls 54-0. Al Kuehl wound up his fine high school career by scoring 38 points. The defense also turned in an outstanding game by shutting out a much faster and offensively explosive team. With the win Wausau clinched the Big River's championship.

George (Chip) Winters (40), hard-driving, crisp blocking, 170 pound senior fullback, whose unmatched desire enabled him to be an outstanding linebacker, prepares to administer the coup d' gras on an Eau Claire Memorial halfback.

The boy hanging on the rail at left is undoubtedly watching for his hero to pass by as Brock leads his team off the field.

Jacks Dominate Most Big Rivers Statistics

As a team Wausau was first in offense, defense and in team standings. The individual leaders follow:

	SCORING		RUSHING
	TD's	Total	Yards	Ave.
Al Kuehl	18	113	755	9.3
Jerry Quaderer	8	48	589	11.3
Chip Winter	4	25	264	7.3

	Tackles	Assists	Outstanding*
Al Kuehl	32	16	11
Tom Ortwein	29	28	1
Jim Schultz	28	25	5

*touchdowns prevented

Wausau's passing is often overlooked because of its tremendous ground game. The trio of passers, Kuehl, Dave Marth, and Rick Eggebrecht, attempted 28 passes and completed 11 for 7 touchdowns.

Coaches Johnson and Gettrust of the highly capable and experienced coaching staff make guard linebacker Chuck Donner the recipient of some of their accumulated knowledge as Chip Lemke (86) and Mike Kalinke (75) look on.

Wausau's outstanding defense, which allowed only seven points in six conference games, here makes sure of terminating the progress of an Eau Claire Memorial runner. Jim Schultz (63), lower left, makes first contact with an ECM back (21) while Evans (76), Kalinke (65) and Winter (40) add their able assistance.

Victory Brings Bedlam To Wausau Locker Room

After the final football game of the season, pandemonium broke loose in the locker room at Thom Field. Unsuspecting (?) coaches received showers fully clothed, Dads stood around beaming with pride, and the players with their managers shouted for joy.

Wausau had just won the Big Rivers Conference title, the mythical Wisconsin state football championship and their ninth straight game, their sixth by a shutout. Wausau also broke an all time attendance record by drawing nearly 4800 fans for each of the five home games.

Although all victories were a team effort, a few individuals did stand out. Al Kuehl was voted the top prep back in Wisconsin for 1963. He was named to the UPI and AP ALL-STATE teams and the BRC ALL-CONFERENCE team. Mike Kalinke was named to the UPI ALL-STATE team and the BRC ALL-CONFERENCE team.

Paul Evans (76), right, and Al Kuehl (44) gently persuaded end coach Lowell Johnson to take a traditional cold shower.

Brockmeyer Leads Lumberjacks To 22nd Title

THE BEST FOOTBALL TEAM IN THE STATE . . . . Those words describe the 1963 football squad. In the same way it must be said that head coach, Win Brockmeyer is THE BEST FOOTBALL COACH IN THE STATE. Since coming from the University of Minnesota in 1937, Brock has piled up a very impressive record . . . 184 victories, 23 defeats, and 8 ties. That might easily be the best record of any high school football coach in the nation.

This continual success has come to him through hard work and his ability to instill in the boys the desire and determination for a winning season. In 27 years he has produced 22 conference titles for the Lumberjacks.

In defense of his profession Brock says, "Coaching a football team gives a man much satisfaction. There is no job I would rather have than that of a football coach."

After a 9-0 record for the BRC title, the state championship, and a thorough soaking under the showers, head coach Win Brockmeyer is given the privilege of making the first cut in the victory cake.

Wisconsin State Meet — 3rd

The Wausau High Ski team again finished with a great season. It was only the second time in eight years that Wausau failed to win the state meet, but the team was again hampered by the loss of Chuck Fox, who was competing with the Central United States Ski Association.

Miss Bonvincin, the only woman coach in the state, is primarily responsible for the ski team, having been its coach since 1952. The combination of her emphasis on physical fitness, her ability as a coach, and the ability of the team has made Wausau High one of the best skiing schools in the state.

Mike Peters (43) attempts a long shot against La Crosse Logan as Al Kuehl and Ken Hudson position themselves for the rebound.

Varsity Basketball

The Wausau basketball team started the 1963-64 season strong, winning three of the first four games played. These victories were against such teams as Eau Claire North, Menomonie and Shawano. Then came some rough obstacles and the Lumberjacks suffered. La Crosse Logan started a parade of defeats. Before Wausau could get back on its feet La Crosse Central, Stevens Point, Chippewa Falls, and Eau Claire Memorial won victories from Wausau.

In the Big Rivers Conference, Wausau finished in a tie with Menomonie for fourth place, each with 5 wins and 7 defeats. The final record compiled was 8 wins and 11 defeats.

Although the 1963-64 season was one of mediocrity, the future looks brighter. The only player not returning is Kuehl. His shoes will be hard to fill, but with such boys as Baumann, Marth, Oleson, Hudson, Wiechman, Peters, Erdman and Goetsch, Wausau should be provided with an experienced team.

Senior forward Al Kuehl lays the ball up and in for an easy two points against Chippewa Falls as Ken Hudson (31) awaits a possible rebound.

Al Kuehl, (upper left), Wausau's star forward, was a unanimous choice on the Big Rivers Conference All-Conference team, and was chosen on the Channel 7 area All-Star team. He had a career total of 962 points.

Al Kuehl is on the verge of adding another two points to his already impressive record this season. He scored 410 points this basketball season.

Mr. E. L. Keeler, Assistant Business Manager for all athletics, has charge of ticket distribution and securing workers for the games. He made the ticket display case on the counter.

“B” Squad Basketball

The 1963-64 Lumberjack “B” team compiled one of the best junior varsity team records at Wausau Senior High in recent years. The team not only won 13 out of 18 games, but many of the boys showed exceptional promise and should be playing on the varsity next year. The team played consistently well, and even in defeat played hard right to the end. The team will never forget the two double-overtime losses to Eau Claire Memorial. Perhaps the highlight game of the season was the convincing victory over a strong Wisconsin Rapids junior varsity here, after losing to them at Rapids.

The high scorer this year was Sheldon Geiger, followed by Terry Ahrens and Dan Braatz. In addition to these three boys, Jack Erdman, Jim Treu, and Dave Ullrich all made the varsity tournament team. Knute Alstad, Dave Dumdey, Terry Schmidt, and Mike Semrau also saw a lot of action during the regular season. Wausau is counting on this “B” team to help carry the Lumberjack’s basketball fortunes the next few years.

Mr. Staats, second row left, cheerfully announced for each home basketball game this season. Herman Kaiser, first row right, has been trainer for the team for 33 years.

Cross Country Team Has Successful Season

Bill Smiley, Richard Dix
 Cross Country Coaches

Seven seniors and one junior made up the 1963 varsity cross country team, and once again the season proved very successful. Captain Bruce Closway, Dean Hanke and Mike Tranetzki shared individual wins as the Lumberjack harriers won all five of their dual and triangular meets by defeating Eau Claire Memorial (15-49 and 15-50), Rhinelander (20-41), Stevens Point (20-47), and Rhinelander and Merrill (26-35-41). Wausau also won first place trophies at the Rhinelander, Shawano, and Wausau Invitational meets, and finished sixth in a field of 22 at the Midwest Invitational Meet at Janesville. The State Sectionals were held in Wausau for the first time with the Lumberjacks qualifying by placing third. In the State Finals Wausau finished seventh.

The junior varsity team had an equally fine season as Tom Tranetzki and Brad Shannon led a predominately sophomore squad to three dual meet wins and victories in the Rhinelander and Wausau Invationals and a third place finish at Janesville.

 These boys, all veterans of last year, except Tranetzki, formed the nucleus of the 1963 team.

Jim Seidel, in picture at the right, sets the pace, training above Thom Field. Lots of hard running and stress on good condition led to a successful season.

WAUSAU INVITATIONAL—A few of the 165 boys who took part in the Seventh Annual Wausau Invitational meet head toward the finish line at the American Legion golf course. Wausau won both A and B meets for the fifth time in the past seven years.

Back Row: Estreen, Aderhold, Mattke, Christianson, Rolfson, Haack, Rolnecke, Youtsos, Schubring, McElroy, Ziebell, Hoesley, Bliss, Chaignot, Kinney.

Wausau's Buechler Rink Second in State Meet

The Lee Buechler rink, Buechler, skip, Chuck Donner, lead, Rick Eggebrecht, second, Don Sanders, third, and Chuck Wirt, alternate, ran a close second to a strong Pardeeville rink in this year's state curling meet. The meet was forced into a playoff round because of a three-way tie for first place. Buechler drew a bye and then lost to Pardeeville in the last end. The Buechler rink also competed in the Mid-State Curling League and concluded the season undefeated for first place.

Donner (left) and Eggebrecht sweep a stone into the house during the state meet.

In intraclub curling during the '63-'64 season, the Robert Brodhead rink won the first event and the Nick Mattke rink the second event in the Leadman's Bonspiel. The Neal Seidler rink upset the Lee Buechler rink, 6-5, for the first event title and the Bill Edwards rink won second event in the mixed bonspiel, and the Steve Lonsdorf rink won the thirteen rink round robin bonspiel with an 11-1 record while the Buechler rink was second at 9-3.

Veteran Curling Coach Harry A. Johnson Retires

Veteran curling coach Harry A. Johnson has decided to retire from active coaching at the end of the current school year. High school curling was organized in Wausau under Coach Johnson seventeen years ago.

Coach Johnson was instrumental in organizing curling not only in Wausau but throughout the state, and in getting the W.I.A.A. to recognize it as a high school sport.

The success of the local school in bonspiel play under Coach Johnson has been unusual and enviable. In bonspiel play they have won first event titles eleven times, second event titles ten times and third event titles four times during the past twelve years. The Mid-Wisconsin league championship has been won twice out of the three years since the league has been organized. Wausau has won the sectional play-down four out of five years and was crowned state champions in 1959. They were runner-ups three times.

The greatest thrill for Coach Johnson was in 1957 when the Wausau teams won all three events in the Portage bonspiel.

An ardent curler himself, Coach Johnson does not intend to give up the sport entirely but will now act as assistant and advisor to Mr. Brian Bennett, who will take over the active duties of Wausau High School curling coach.

Curling coach Harry Johnson displays his many medals and patches won in past years.

Quaderer wrestled in the 165 pound class and had a very impressive 40-7-3 career record. He also won first place in his class in this year's Big Rivers Conference meet.

Other first place winners in this meet were Gene Woller, Jim Sydow, and Jerry Robinson. These boys led Wausau to a second place finish in this meet. Regular season highlights included a 3-1-1 record against conference opponents, including a 43-10 victory over Chippewa Falls. Wausau also fought hard for a 22-19 victory over Edina, Minnesota, Coach Howe's alma mater, as heavyweight Tom Seefeldt won the decisive last match. Wausau ranked sixth in the D. C. Everest Invitational, one of the toughest tournaments in the state.

Golf Prospects Plentiful For 1964 Squad

Lettermen Ken Peterson, Mike Ryan, Steve Halder criticize John Larson's form.

Wausau High's golf team was led this season by Coach Win Brockmeyer's returning lettermen Steve Halder, John Larson, Ken Peterson, and Mike Ryan. The squad was new, but there was a great deal of experience and polished technique. The boys played on unfamiliar fairways in all of their meets, finding skill and the incentive to play outstanding golf valuable assets. In spite of the difficult course the team had greatly improved, ending the year with a fine record.

WHS Diamondmen Show Fine Potential

Leading the team were Jerry McCabe, catcher, Tom Leffler, pitcher, Tom Camps and Garry Baumann, infielders, and Dale Volkman, who roamed the outfield. To back them up were a host of seasoned rookies. Coaches Turnquist and Torresani must be commended for their dedication; they feel the future should prove equally fruitful.

This year the new rules containing provisions for rovers and zone defense added much excitement to girls' basketball play.

Paulette Bergman, a proficient senior archer, shows her excellent form to a group of juniors.

Here a group of girls demonstrate dance patterns to the tune of "Five Foot Two".

Gym classes this year helped to promote physical fitness more than ever before. With the interest in physical abilities now on a national scale, physical fitness tests are being given to all girls throughout the year. Added to this is the learning and perfecting of team sports such as basketball and volleyball; co-ordination skills such as tumbling, acrobatics, and trampoline work; individual competition in badminton, table tennis, and archery, plus a program in modern and folk dance.

Throughout the year the girls are given a series of physical fitness tests which measure physical coordination, speed, and endurance. Tests such as the shuttle-run, basketball skill tests, and broad jumping are given inside during the colder weather. Then in the spring the girls go out doors to complete their testing with the 600 yard run, the 50 yard dash, and softball throw.

Modern Dance Group: Shannon, Nemke, Nowitzke, Ollhoff, Plautz.

Girls practice basketball skill tests with chest passes and lay-up shots.

Wahiscan Business Staff

Another WAHISCAN is finished
 And the days of the school year diminished.
 In the future years when you are reminiscing
 Remembering faces and friends you're missing
 Don't only look at the students, teachers, and advisors
 But take a long look at the advertisers.
 Because of the money they have spent
 To you this annual we have sent.

We'd thank Mr. Dzubay, the staff, and stores
 For now, future years and evermore.

Schreiber, Pukis, Neitzke

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE 1964 GRADUATES OF WAUSAU SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Go to college! No matter how hard you must work, no matter what personal sacrifices you must make in order to do it —
GO TO COLLEGE!

The competition for business keeps getting tougher and tougher, requiring the services of those individuals whose education has prepared them to meet the needs of industry. As more and more college graduates enter the business world, fewer and fewer responsible jobs become accessible to those who do not have higher education.

Here are some impressive statistics. In 1930, 12.2% of the high school graduates in the United States attended college. In 1940 it rose to 15%, and to 30% in 1950. Today that figure has reached nearly 40% and it increases each year. It is estimated that by 1970 at least 50% of the high school graduates will attend college.

Here's an even more impressive fact. In a lifetime of employment, college graduates will average $100,000 more income than those who have not gone to school beyond the high school level.

If you have already decided not to go to college, please reconsider. This is one of the most important decisions you will make in your lifetime.

If, for some bona fide reason, you are unable to attend college, you should at least continue your education by taking specialized training at some institute of higher learning.

Our best wishes go with each and every one of you in whatever endeavors you undertake.

Sincerely,

MARATHON BATTERY COMPANY

Acknowledgments

REMEMBER WHEN . . . . . the 1964 WAHISCAN was produced and distributed. This annual was the result of the combined efforts of many, many people. We are very grateful to all who had even the smallest part in publishing this book.

Mr. Rosenhauer, our capable advisor, deserves special thanks for his guidance, patience, and the use of his golf clubs.

The dedicated and conscientious editorial staff, who with a minimum of difficulties and much hard work produced this book, merits particular recognition.

Throughout the book the work of our photographers, Ray Toburen and Ray Gehring, is outstanding in quality and content. Many thanks to them also for cheerfully putting up with emergency situations and wild requests from the staff.

Don Gasch of the Fey Publishing Company, Wisconsin Rapids and Don Adams of the S. K. Smith Company, Chicago, Illinois deserve credit for their willing cooperation in, respectively, printing the yearbook and selecting a cover design.

L. to R. - G. K. Rosenhauer, Stuart Schaller, Don Gasch, Janet Behm, and Nancy Freund hold an important conference.

Dear Brother,
Here I am at 2:00 clock in the morning writing in your annual. Boy oh Boy! what a night!!! Well seriously I think you a wonderful brother and we did have some very interesting times together. I'll never forget all the things you did for me. I really appreciate it. I also know we did a lot of things we shouldn't have, but that's all in the past. I certainly have enjoyed being here at Wausau for these last three weeks. Wish we could do it more often. Well I guess I took up enough space so I'll sign off with - - -

Love
Gandy

(Reserved)

Dear Bob.

Well I sure am glad that I've gotten the chance to sign your annual. If you can't read this too well - you must understand my un-co-ordinations in smashing my thumb. Now here I am a senior - doesn't seem possible - seems only yesterday I came as a soph. scared to death. I'll always remember the assembly hall and those movies - and all. Remember all the fun we had in 306 study hall - sending sign lang. across the room - well those days are gone - you're out on your own - and soon I'll be following. You've found out what it's like - I still have to face it and at times I'm rather scared. I'd like to say that in the 2 1/2 yrs. I've known you - I've never met a nicer guy - from Feb 26, 1963 until May 1, 1964 were times of great happiness for both of us. It ended rather sad, maybe it was best. I can't say, but I do know that you & your parents will always have a special place in my heart. Bob, I wish the very very best for you in your future - and when you do settle down - I want you to be very happy - as I once read "this world is a stage, God is the director - & we play the part - determining its worth." May God above be with you every step of the way.

Remember you always -

Karen Hemmick - Sept 10-64
